

For tailored legal advice whether on a daily basis or during an exceptional operation and committed defense
in case of negotiations or disputes.

Majorelle Avocats is a law firm with expertise in employment law and social security law. We advise SMEs, mid-cap companies, and listed groups on securing their labor relations, managing sensitive litigation, and addressing their most strategic business challenges.

Our pragmatic and tailored approach enables us to meet the specific needs of our clients, combining legal expertise with a strong understanding of economic and operational realities.

Majorelle Mobility is part of the Majorelle Conseil ecosystem, which brings together four complementary areas of expertise to cover all HR needs of organizations. Our teams can work individually or in perfect synergy, depending on your specific requirements.

To facilitate and secure the international mobility of your teams, in France and abroad.

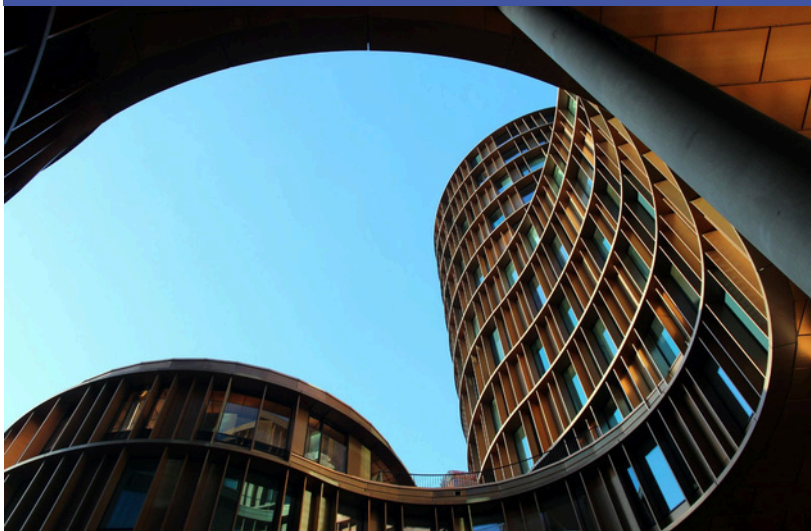

For effective HR strategies and compensation policies tailored to your challenges.

To identify and recruit your HR teams and management.

Our services

HR compliance & risk management

We provide day-to-day support to help you secure your employment relations: managing employees, collective bargaining with staff representatives, health and safety risk prevention, workforce restructuring, and social audits.

High-risk litigation

We represent and defend your interests in complex employment-related litigation whether before judicial administrative bodies including cases of dismissal, working time, discrimination, harassment, workplace accidents and occupational illnesses, professional elections, and challenges to SEC expert reports.

URSSAF audits & disputes

Our lawyers support you at every stage of audits and litigation, with the aim of cancelling or reducing the financial consequences of any proposed reassessments.

Executive-company relations

We advise companies and their executives on status, remuneration structuring, and liability issues during appointments, exits, or litigation. Our strategic guidance helps ensure compliance and protection for both the individual and the organization.
